The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1,3-5 and 10-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Linthicum, of record.

The previous rejection still applies. The new limitations still do not structurally distinguish over Linthicum because the area of the silicon substrate where silicon layer 302a' is located is not "metamorphosed" into silicon carbide. There is no silicon carbide present in or below 302a'. The final structure of applicant's claim does not structurally distinguish over Linthicum regardless of the product by process language. See the cited caselaw.

Claims 1,4,5,11 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Arai '039.

The previous rejection still applies. As above the new language does not structurally distinguish the final product over Arai because it is directed to process or functional language.

Claims 1,3-5 and 10-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Arai with Sawaki and Linthicum, of record.

The previous rejection with the above comments applies.

Applicant's arguments filed 5/24/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues on page 6 of the remarks process differences between Linthicum and applicant. Again applicant is directed to the cited product by process caselaw. There is no silicon carbide in the substrate below the silicon epitaxial layer 302a'. The final claim structure does not structurally distinguish over Linthicum notwithstanding any removal of SiC from the substrate of Linthicum.

Arguments regarding electronic or optical devices "united" are not convincing of patentability because there is no specific electronic or optical device structure claimed which would distinguish over the applied art. The new recitation "for an electronic-optical united device used for..." is basically a statement of intended use and there is no specifically claimed structure which would in any way structurally distinguish over the applied art.

Arguments regarding Arai are also unpersuasive as Arai shows areas under the thick isolation regions that are not "metamorphosed".

In regard to Sawaki, as stated, Sawaki teaches the equivalence of silicon nitride and silicon oxide as "masks" for GaN growth on silicon substrate. Accordingly a device as Arai with either oxide or nitride thick isolation "mask" regions for GaN growth on silicon substrate would have been obvious structure.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
